Dear Dr Kempson,

You will know that I have been one of the three LAGB representatives on CLIE since June 1984, and chair since September 1984. Election to CLIE is for three years, with the possibility of a second term of three years. A person may remain chair for four years.

LAGB ought therefore to decide whether they wish me to remain on CLIE for a second three years, or to elect someone else. I am willing to remain on the committee if LAGB wishes. But I have already announced to the committee that I think the chair should pass to someone else, probably at the next meeting but one.

The other LAGB representatives on CLIE are Colin Biggs (since 1985) and Gill Brown (since 1986).

Please just give me a ring if you want further details.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Michael W. Stubbs
