

CLIE Meeting 67: Agenda item 2

Amendments to minutes of Meeting 66 (proposed by 15/2/01)

2.1. Item 6.5. + new item 6.11 (HS)

(a) Replace the current paragraph with the following:

"NATECLA's journal, Language Issues, continues to be published twice a year. An issue on the effects of the dispersal of refugees across the country is being planned for the summer edition."

(b) Create a new item, 6.11, for the replaced paragraph, to read as follows:

"6.11. Helen Sunderland

The first issue of Networking, the newsletter of the London Language and Literacy Unit ~~(which hosts NATECLA)~~ was published in October 2000. The LLLU was founded in 1975 and is based at South Bank University:

2.2. Item 6.8.(a) (DH)

Reword the paragraph as follows:

"Over the summer, DH was involved at TTA with starting to produce material for a CD-ROM for non-specialist KS3 English teachers. (This work is still ongoing in November.) The NLS team (not TTA) have also produced a draft book for specialist English teachers on Sentence-level work (i.e. grammar), as support for the schools which are currently trialling this work in Year 7 (first year of KS3). This book is to be revised before being distributed to all schools."

2.3. Item 6.10. (EJ)

Re-label paragraphs (a)-(a)-(b)-(c) as (a)-(b)-(c)-(d).

2.4. Item 6.10.(d) (MB)

Reword the second sentence as follows:

"A Scientific Commission on Literacy was reactivated and is currently coordinated by Mike Baynham (University of Leeds) and Mastin Prinsloo (University of Cape Town). Its website is:
<http://www.education.leeds.ac.uk/AILA>."

2.5. Item 11.4. (DH)

Reword the beginning of the sentence as follows:

"CLIE would welcome an invitation from QCA" (to assist during subsequent stages of the implementation of the programme but a CLIE offer to this effect has to be cleared with the LAGB and BAAL Committees.)
